

Anyway, the result was that GM canola blew across the organic farm. Swathes of GM canola were identified on the organic farm. The paddocks (7-13) marked with a red cross were decertified due to GM contamination. This was 70% of the Marsh farm decertified in 2010.